

Summer Band Concerts

The Starliters -- 2001

Summer treats

The band Sweet Cider recently performed under the tent at the Presbyterian Church in Schoharie in the third summer concert of the season. The concerts are sponsored by the Promotional Association. One more concert is set for August 8. Jack, 6, and Andie Burton, 5, anxiously wait for some popcorn, left, during the concert.

Sounds of summer

Ernie Williams and his band delighted those at the first Schoharie summer concert of the season on July 10 behind the Presbyterian Church on Main Street. The concerts continue this Friday with Sweet Cider performing from 7 to 9pm. Peaceful Country on July 31 and The Barefoot Boys on August 7 round out the concert schedule.

The concerts will be held in the tent behind the Presbyterian Church except for Sweet Cider which will be held by the village clock by the county courthouse.

The concerts are sponsored by the Schoharie Promotional Association.

Photos by David Avitabile

Adriaen Jackson and Sarah Jane relax while watching the concert.

Ethan Spivak, 2, and Danielle Seiderer enjoy dancing to the music.

Andie Burton, 6, shared some popcorn with her father Terry Burton at the first Schoharie concert of the season.

The crowd was good for the first concert of the summer in Schoharie on July 10 behind the Presbyterian Church.